

Hello!

I am interested job in your company in the position "Front-end Developer". Please examine my candidacy. I have attached my CV in PDF format to this letter.

A few words about me. My name is Yuri Beliakov and I'm a front-end developer from Russia. I have been doing web development since 2004. During this time I have worked on many interesting projects for companies Netcracker Technology, Yandex, Art. Lebedev Studio. Now I'm working at Topcon Positioning Systems company.

I love my job and always try to learn something new. My favorite technologies are HTML, CSS and JavaScript. But I'm also interested in all technologies and tools associated with web development. My resume contains more detailed information about my work experience and skills.

Besides work I love my family, fitness, bicycling, good movies and computer games.

If my candidacy interests you, please contact me by email or chat in Skype.

Thank you.
